

Nurses who come to you

Mercy Health Home Care nurses can come to your home or workplace if you need assistance with your health and wellbeing.

Mercy Health Care first

Care first

Our community nursing service supports people living in the North West (Parkville and surrounds) and East (Hughesdale and surrounds) of Melbourne, and Geelong and the surrounding areas.

Our skilled and professional nurses can assist with:

wound care

medication
management

cognitive assessments

continence assessments and more.

Services are available through government-funded programs including the Commonwealth Home Support Programme (some areas only), Department of Veterans' Affairs, Home Care Packages, NDIS or on a private fee-paying basis.
